THE ELONAI DEVOTIONAL COLLECTION

A 21-DAY DEVOTIONAL & PRAYER JOURNAL FOR WOMEN

Anchored

21 Days from Anxious to At Peace

"An anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast"

ELONAI
STORE

Anchored: 21 Days from Anxious to At Peace

© 2026 Elonai Store. All rights reserved.

This book is a free gift. You are warmly encouraged to share it with friends, small groups and churches, as long as it is shared free of charge and unaltered. It may not be sold or republished.

Scripture quotations are from the King James Version (KJV), public domain.

This devotional is a spiritual resource and is not a substitute for professional medical or mental health care. If you are struggling with persistent anxiety, depression or thoughts of harming yourself, please reach out to a doctor, licensed counselor or pastor. In the United States you can call or text 988 (Suicide & Crisis Lifeline) at any time.

More free devotionals: blog-elonai.vercel.app

A LETTER TO YOU

Dear friend,

I'll be honest about why this book exists. Over and over, I kept seeing women — in Facebook groups, in comment sections, in prayer requests — saying the same thing in different words: I can't turn my mind off. I'm so anxious. How do I make it stop?

Many of them loved Jesus. Many of them felt guilty for being anxious, as if worry meant their faith was broken. And almost all of them felt alone.

So I made this for you — and it's free. No catch.

Over the next 21 days, you'll walk with real people in the Bible who were overwhelmed: a runaway servant in the desert, an exhausted prophet under a tree, a busy woman in her kitchen, a fisherman sinking in the waves — and Jesus Himself, praying in a garden at night. In every story, God comes close.

Each day takes about ten minutes. You'll read a short story from Scripture, hold onto one truth, try one small practice, pray, and write. At the end of each day, you'll get a glimpse of what's coming tomorrow.

This isn't a quick fix, and it doesn't replace good counsel or medical care. But I believe with my whole heart that the God who calmed the sea can calm a mind — and that He wants to meet you in these pages.

Let's begin together.

With love,
Elonai

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

The One at the Center

Every page of this book points to one Person. Before Day 1, let's make sure you know Him.

The Bible tells us that God made us to know Him and to rest in Him. But all of us have gone our own way. Scripture calls that sin, and it leaves us separated from God — restless, carrying burdens we were never meant to carry alone.

God didn't leave us there. He sent His Son.

> For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
>
> JOHN 3:16 · KJV

Jesus lived the life we couldn't live, died on the cross for our sins, and rose again on the third day. He is alive today, and He still says the same words He spoke two thousand years ago:

> Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
>
> MATTHEW 11:28 · KJV

You can't earn this. You receive it. "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved" (Romans 10:9).

IF YOU WANT TO FOLLOW JESUS, YOU CAN PRAY SOMETHING LIKE THIS

Jesus, I'm tired of carrying everything on my own. I believe You are the Son of God, that You died for my sins and rose again. I turn from my own way and I trust You. Forgive me, fill me with Your Holy Spirit, and be my Lord. Amen.

If you prayed that for the first time, write today's date here: _____ . Then tell someone — a Christian friend, a local church, or our community (see the end of this book). We would love to celebrate with you.

HOW THIS WORKS

Ten minutes. Twenty-one days.

Each day has two pages. The first page is for reading; the second is for responding.

i.

Read

A short reading built around one passage of Scripture and one truth about God.

ii.

Hold one truth

A single sentence to carry with you all day. Short enough to remember at 3 a.m.

iii.

Practice & pray

One small, concrete step for today, and a written prayer you can pray as your own.

iv.

Write it down

An honest question and space to answer. Writing slows racing thoughts and helps you notice God's answers.

✦

The journey

Week One — God Sees You. Naming what you carry, and meeting the God who comes close.
Week Two — Hand It Over. Practical, daily ways to put your worries in His hands.
Week Three — Stand Anchored. Who you are in Christ when the next storm comes.

A TIP THAT MAKES ALL THE DIFFERENCE

People who decide exactly when and where they'll do something are far more likely to follow through. On the next page, choose your time and place — and tie it to something you already do every day, like your morning coffee.

Reading on a phone or tablet? Write your answers in a notebook, or open this PDF in an app like GoodNotes and write right on the page.

MY COMMITMENT

I'm showing up for 21 days.

Every day, after I _____ ,

I will open Anchored at _____ in _____ .

I'm starting on _____ . My one-word prayer: _____

✦

Color in a circle each day you finish. Watch the chain grow.

WEEK ONE · GOD SEES YOU

1 2 3 4 5 6 7

WEEK TWO · HAND IT OVER

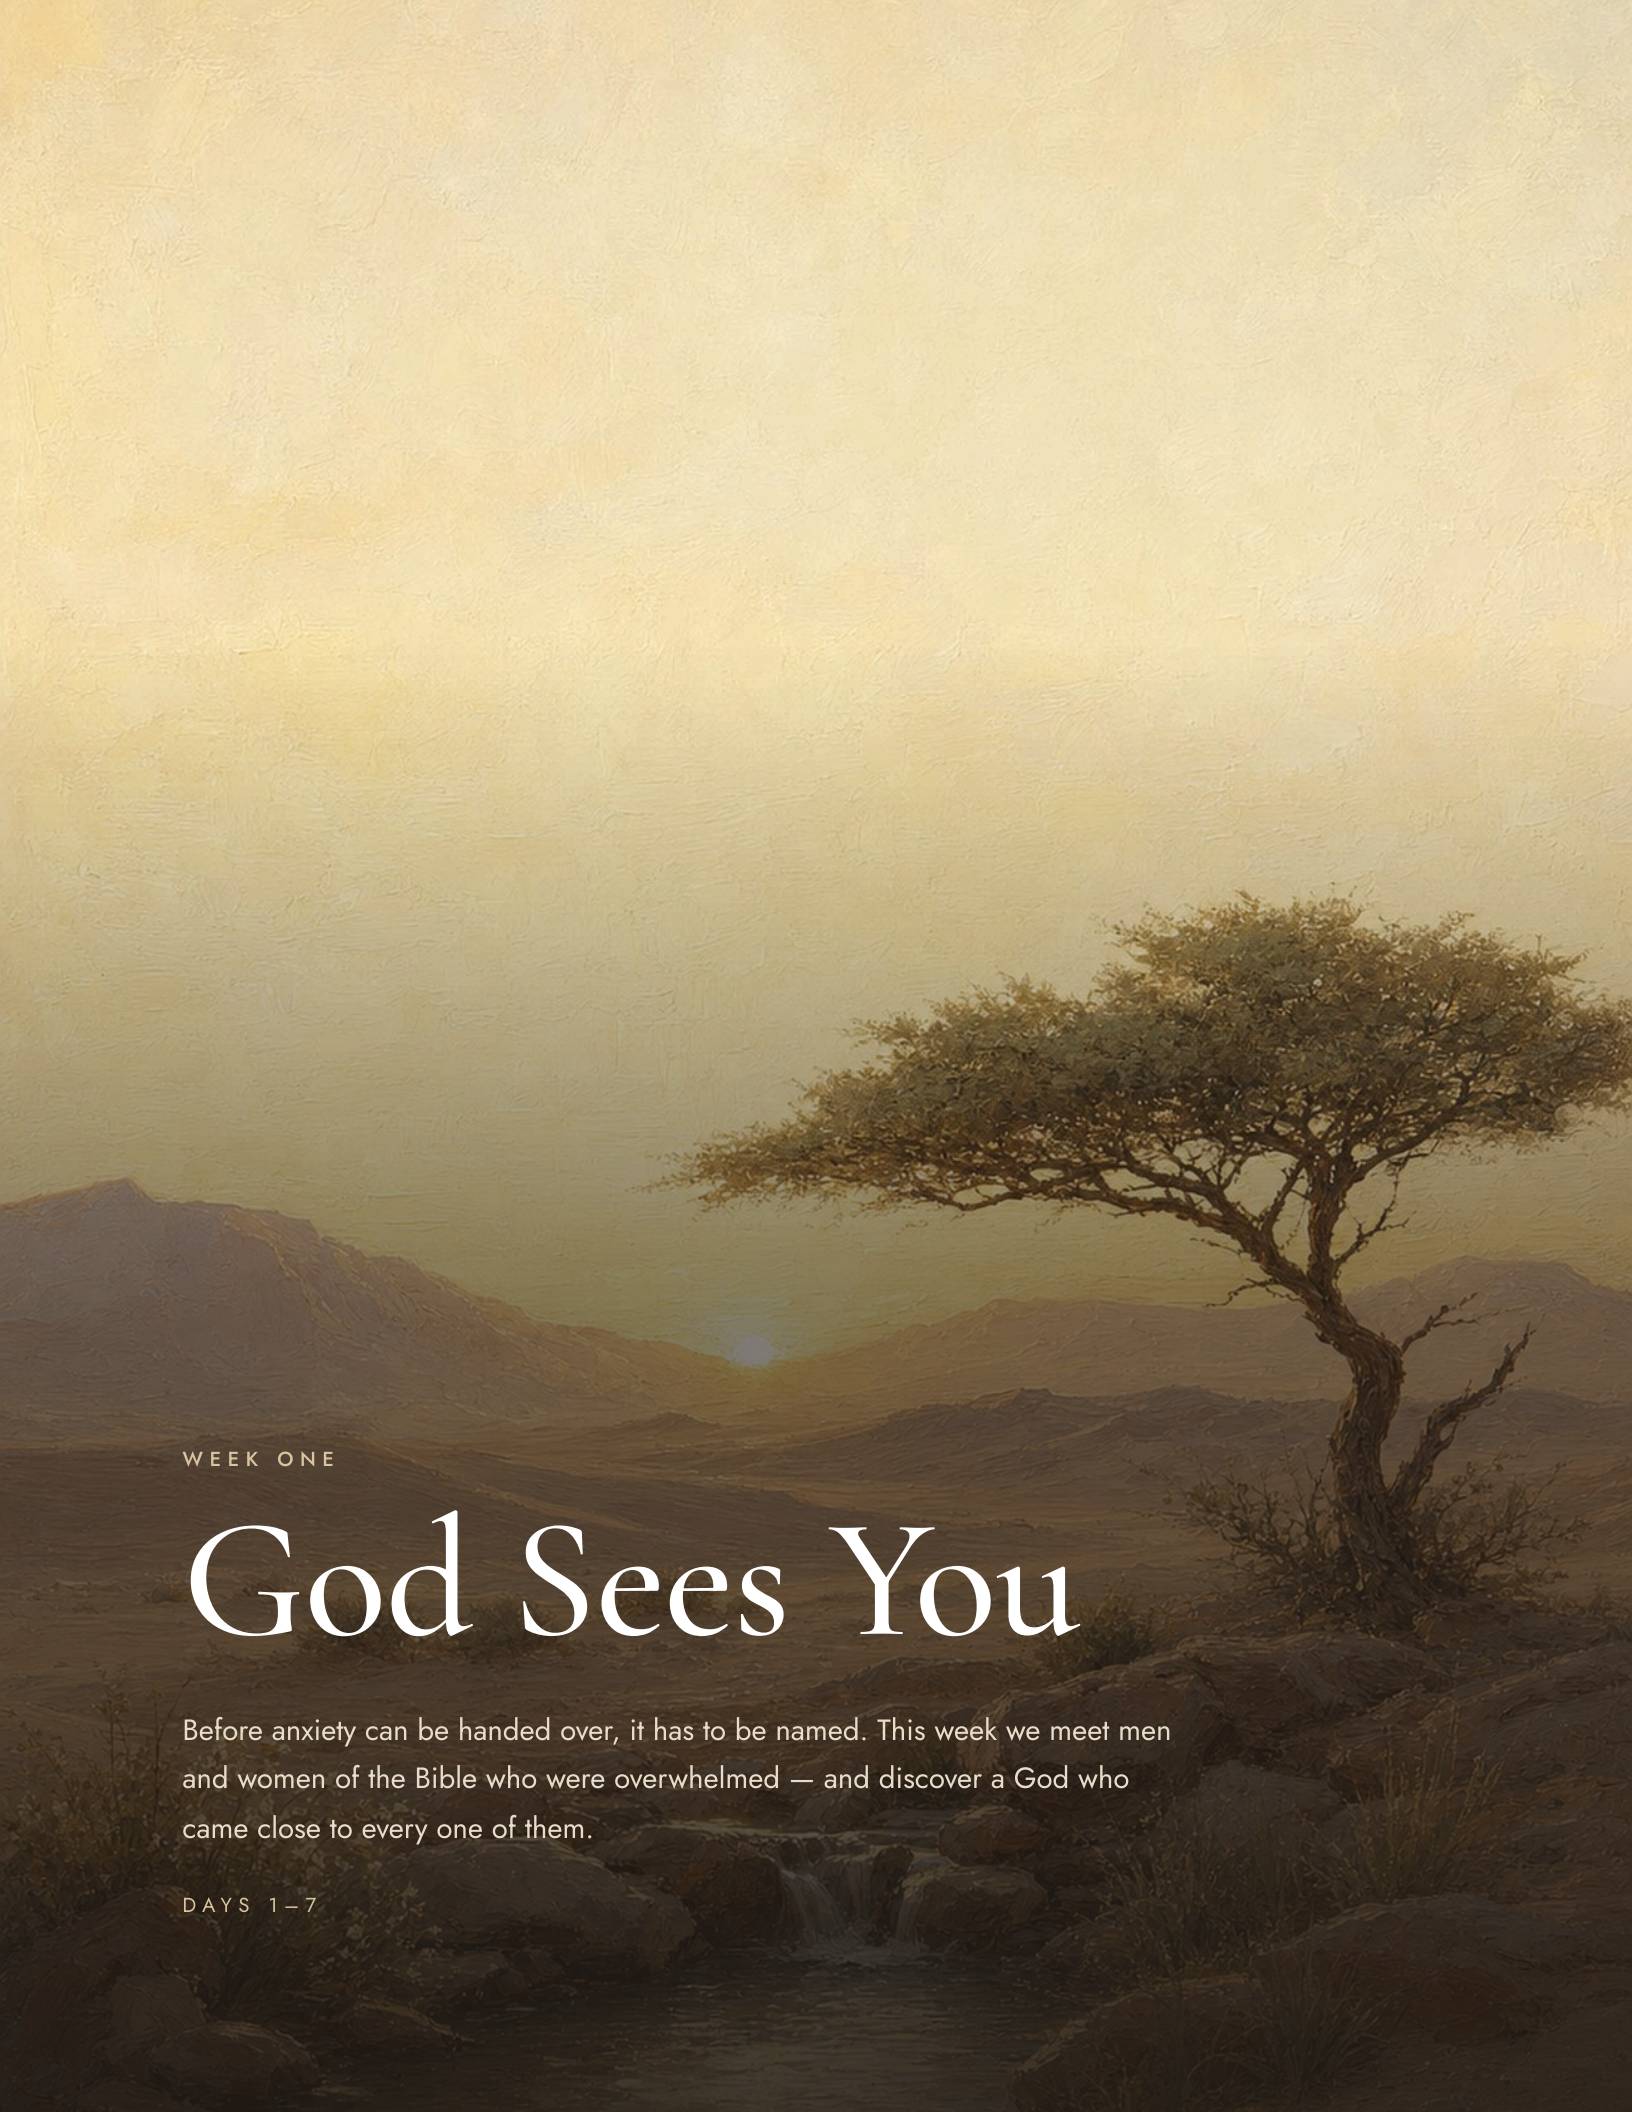

8 9 10 11 12 13 14

WEEK THREE · STAND ANCHORED

15 16 17 18 19 20 21

MISSED A DAY?

Don't start over and don't feel guilty. Missing a day here and there doesn't undo your progress. Just turn to the next day and keep going. His mercies are new every morning.

WEEK ONE

God Sees You

Before anxiety can be handed over, it has to be named. This week we meet men and women of the Bible who were overwhelmed — and discover a God who came close to every one of them.

DAYS 1–7

WEEK ONE

Day 01 / 21

The God Who Sees You

Maybe it's late. The house is finally quiet, but your mind isn't. You've been strong for everyone all day, and no one noticed what it cost you. If that's you — this first day is for you.

> And she called the name of the LORD that spake unto her, Thou God seest me: for she said, Have I also here looked after him that seeth me?
>
> GENESIS 16:13 · KJV

Hagar was a servant with no rights, no voice, and no way out. Mistreated by Sarai, she ran into the desert, pregnant and alone. Scripture says the angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water. Not in a temple. Not after she cleaned herself up. In the wilderness, in the middle of her running.

And Hagar did something remarkable: she gave God a name. El Roi — "the God who sees me." She is the only person in the Bible to name God this way. The one person nobody saw became the one who taught us that God sees.

Anxiety often whispers that you are on your own — that if you don't hold everything together, it will all fall apart, and no one will even notice. Hagar's story answers that lie. You have been seen. Your 3 a.m. thoughts, your tight chest, the tears you hid in the car — none of it has escaped His eyes.

Being seen doesn't fix everything at once. Hagar still had to walk back. But she walked back different, because she knew she was not invisible. That is where we begin these 21 days: not with a technique, but with a God who sees you, right where you are.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 1

I am not invisible. The God who sees me is with me right now.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Three times today, when you feel the tightness of worry, whisper: "You see me." Set a reminder on your phone if it helps.

PRAY

El Roi, God who sees me — I am tired of carrying this alone. You found Hagar in the desert, and You have found me here. I don't have to pretend with You. Thank You for seeing what no one else sees. Stay close to me over these next 21 days. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

What have I been carrying that I feel no one sees? Write it to the God who does.

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow One of the boldest prophets in the Bible once lay down under a tree and asked to die. What God did next wasn't a sermon — it was something far more surprising.

WEEK ONE

Day 02 / 21

When the Journey Is Too Great

Some anxiety isn't loud. It's just exhaustion that never quite goes away — the kind where even a good night's sleep doesn't touch the tiredness underneath.

> And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat; because the journey is too great for thee.
>
> 1 KINGS 19:7 · KJV

Elijah had just seen fire fall from heaven on Mount Carmel. It was the greatest victory of his life. And within a day, one threat from Queen Jezebel sent him running for his life into the wilderness, where he sat under a juniper tree and prayed, "It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life."

Here is what God did not do: He did not scold Elijah for his lack of faith. He did not give him a list of things to fix. He let him sleep. Then an angel touched him and said, "Arise and eat." There was warm bread and a jar of water. Elijah ate, drank, and slept again.

Then the angel came a second time, with words that are some of the tenderest in Scripture: "because the journey is too great for thee." God agreed with Elijah. Yes, this is too much for you. That is why I am here.

Sometimes the most spiritual thing you can do is rest, eat a real meal, drink water, and go to bed. Your body and your soul are not enemies. God cares for both. Before Elijah heard the still small voice on the mountain, he needed bread under a tree.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 2

God is not disappointed in my exhaustion. He meets my weariness with care.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Do one kind thing for your body today: a real meal, a glass of water, a 10-minute walk, or going to bed 30 minutes earlier. Do it as an act of trust.

PRAY

Father, the journey has felt too great for me. Thank You that You don't shame my weariness — You feed it, You touch it, You let me rest. Teach me to receive Your care. Strengthen me for the road ahead. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

Where is my body telling me the journey has been too great? What would rest look like this week?

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow we step into a garden at night, where Jesus Himself said, "My soul is exceeding sorrowful." What He did there changes how we pray.

WEEK ONE

Day 03 / 21

Even Jesus Prayed Honestly

Have you ever felt like you had to tidy up your prayers before you could bring them to God? As if anxiety were a sin to hide instead of a burden to share?

> And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.
>
> MARK 14:36 · KJV

On the night before the cross, Jesus went to a garden called Gethsemane. Mark says He "began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy." He told His closest friends, "My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death." Luke adds that His sweat was like great drops of blood.

This is the Son of God. He was not anxious because He lacked faith; He was facing the weight of the world's sin. And notice how He prayed: "Abba" — the tender word a child uses for a father. Then He asked plainly for what He wanted: "take away this cup from me."

Only after that honest request did He say, "nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt." Surrender came after honesty, not instead of it.

You are allowed to tell God exactly how you feel and exactly what you want. He can handle your fear. Jesus made a way for you to pray like a child to a Father — honestly first, and then, held in His love, to trust.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 3

I can bring God my real feelings. Honesty is where surrender begins.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Write today's prayer in two parts: "Abba, here is what I honestly want..." and "Nevertheless, I trust You with..."

PRAY

Abba, Father — I'm bringing You the real version of me today. Here's what scares me, and here's what I wish You would do. And because Jesus prayed this way first, I can say it too: not my will, but Yours. Hold me while I learn to mean it. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

Abba, here is what I honestly want... / Nevertheless, I trust You with...

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow There's a psalm where the writer stops talking to God for a moment — and starts talking to himself. It's one of the most practical tools for an anxious mind in all of Scripture.

WEEK ONE Day 04 / 21

Talk Back to Your Soul

Anxious thoughts talk all day long. "What if this happens? What if you fail? What if it's worse than you think?" What if, today, you talked back?

> Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.
>
> PSALM 42:11 · KJV

The writer of Psalm 42 was in a dark place. "My tears have been my meat day and night," he says, while people asked him, "Where is thy God?" He remembered better days, and the memory only hurt more.

Then he does something unusual. He turns and speaks to himself: "Why art thou cast down, O my soul?" He doesn't deny the feeling — he questions it. And then he gives his soul an instruction: "hope thou in God."

Most of us listen to ourselves all day. The psalmist teaches us to preach to ourselves. Your feelings are real, but they are not in charge. You can answer them with truth.

He repeats the refrain three times across Psalms 42 and 43. That tells us something: this wasn't a one-time fix. He had to keep saying it. So will you — and that is not failure. That's how hope is practiced.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 4

My feelings are real, but they don't get the last word. I can tell my soul to hope in God.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

When a "what if" comes today, answer it out loud: "Soul, why are you cast down? Hope in God." Then name one true thing about Him.

PRAY

Lord, my soul has been loud and heavy. Today I choose to speak back with Your truth. I will yet praise You — not because everything is fine, but because You are my God. Lift my head again. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

Write down the loudest "what if" in my mind. Then write the truth I will answer it with.

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow, Jesus speaks to a busy, overwhelmed woman by name — twice. What He tells her about "one thing" might be the gentlest correction you'll ever receive.

WEEK ONE Day 05 / 21

Martha, Martha

The to-do list. The group chat. The appointments, the meals, the needs of everyone around you. Some days it feels like if you stop moving, everything stops.

> And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.
>
> LUKE 10:41–42 · KJV

Martha opened her home to Jesus. That was a beautiful thing. But as she served, she became "cumbered about much serving" — pulled in every direction. Her sister Mary sat at Jesus' feet, and Martha finally snapped: "Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone?"

Notice how Jesus answers. He says her name twice: "Martha, Martha." In Scripture, a doubled name is a sign of deep affection. He isn't rolling His eyes. He's leaning in.

"Thou art careful and troubled about many things." Jesus names what is happening inside her: she is anxious, divided, scattered. And then He gently offers a different way: "one thing is needful."

Jesus wasn't saying serving is bad. He was saying that being with Him comes first, and the rest flows from there. You don't have to finish everything before you're allowed to sit at His feet. Sitting there is how you'll find the strength for everything else.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 5

Jesus says my name with love. Being with Him is the one thing I need most.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Before you open your phone tomorrow morning, sit with Jesus for five minutes. No list. Just read today's verse again and breathe.

PRAY

Jesus, You know my name, and You know how many things are pulling at me. I'm so tired of being troubled about everything. Help me choose the good part — time with You — and trust You with the rest. In Your name, amen.

JOURNAL

What "many things" are pulling at me? Which one thing will I choose first tomorrow?

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow, someone actually walks on water — and then starts to sink. The moment he begins to go under is where the best part of the story happens.

WEEK ONE

Day 06 / 21

Lord, Save Me

You were doing better. You were trusting God. And then the news came, or the bill, or the phone call — and suddenly you're sinking again. Does that mean your faith failed?

> But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me. And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?
>
> MATTHEW 14:30–31 · KJV

Peter did something no one else in the boat dared to do. He stepped out onto the water toward Jesus — and for a few steps, he walked. Then he looked at the wind, became afraid, and began to sink.

The prayer he prayed in that moment is only three words long: "Lord, save me." No eloquence. No theology. Just a cry. And Matthew says Jesus answered "immediately." He didn't wait for Peter to calm down. He didn't let him sink a little to teach him a lesson. He reached out and caught him.

Yes, Jesus said, "O thou of little faith." But He said it while holding Peter in His hand. The correction came wrapped in rescue.

Sinking moments don't disqualify you. They're the moments to pray one of the shortest prayers in the Bible. When your eyes go back to the wind, call out — and feel His hand. You were never as far from Him as the waves made it seem.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 6

When I begin to sink, I can cry out — and Jesus reaches for me immediately.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Make "Lord, save me" your breath prayer today. Breathe in: "Lord…" Breathe out: "…save me." Use it every time the wind gets loud.

PRAY

Lord, save me. I keep looking at the wind. Thank You that You don't wait for me to get it right before You reach for me. Catch me again today, and turn my eyes back to You. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

What is the "wind" I keep looking at? What would it look like to look at Jesus instead?

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow You've made it through six days. Tomorrow we rest beside still waters with a psalm you may have known your whole life — but probably never read like this.

WEEK ONE

Day 07 / 21

Through the Valley

You've made it through the first week. Take a breath. Today is lighter on purpose — a day to rest in the most-loved psalm ever written.

> The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. … Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
>
> PSALM 23:1, 4 · KJV

David was a shepherd before he was a king. He knew sheep are not brave animals. They panic easily, they wander, and they cannot protect themselves. A good shepherd doesn't expect sheep to be strong; he simply stays with them.

Look at what changes halfway through Psalm 23. In the first verses, David talks about God: "He maketh me to lie down… he leadeth me." But when he reaches the dark valley, he starts talking to God: "for thou art with me."

In the valley, God gets closer, not farther away. The shadows are where the psalm becomes personal.

Notice, too, that David says "through" the valley. Not into it to stay. You are walking through this season, and your Shepherd's rod and staff — His protection and His guidance — are with you every step.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 7

I am walking through, not staying in. My Shepherd is with me in the valley.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Read Psalm 23 slowly out loud. Then reread this week's six Truths to Hold (Days 1–6). Circle the one you need most.

PRAY

Lord, You are my Shepherd. I am not strong, but You don't ask me to be. Lead me beside still waters. Restore my soul. And in every dark valley, let me feel that You are with me. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

Week One reflection: How has God shown me this week that He sees me?

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Week Two starts tomorrow. We'll take the most famous verse on anxiety in the Bible and break it into four practical steps you can use in under ten minutes.

WELL DONE

You finished Week One.

Seven days of showing up. That matters more than you know. Before you move on, take a moment to look back.

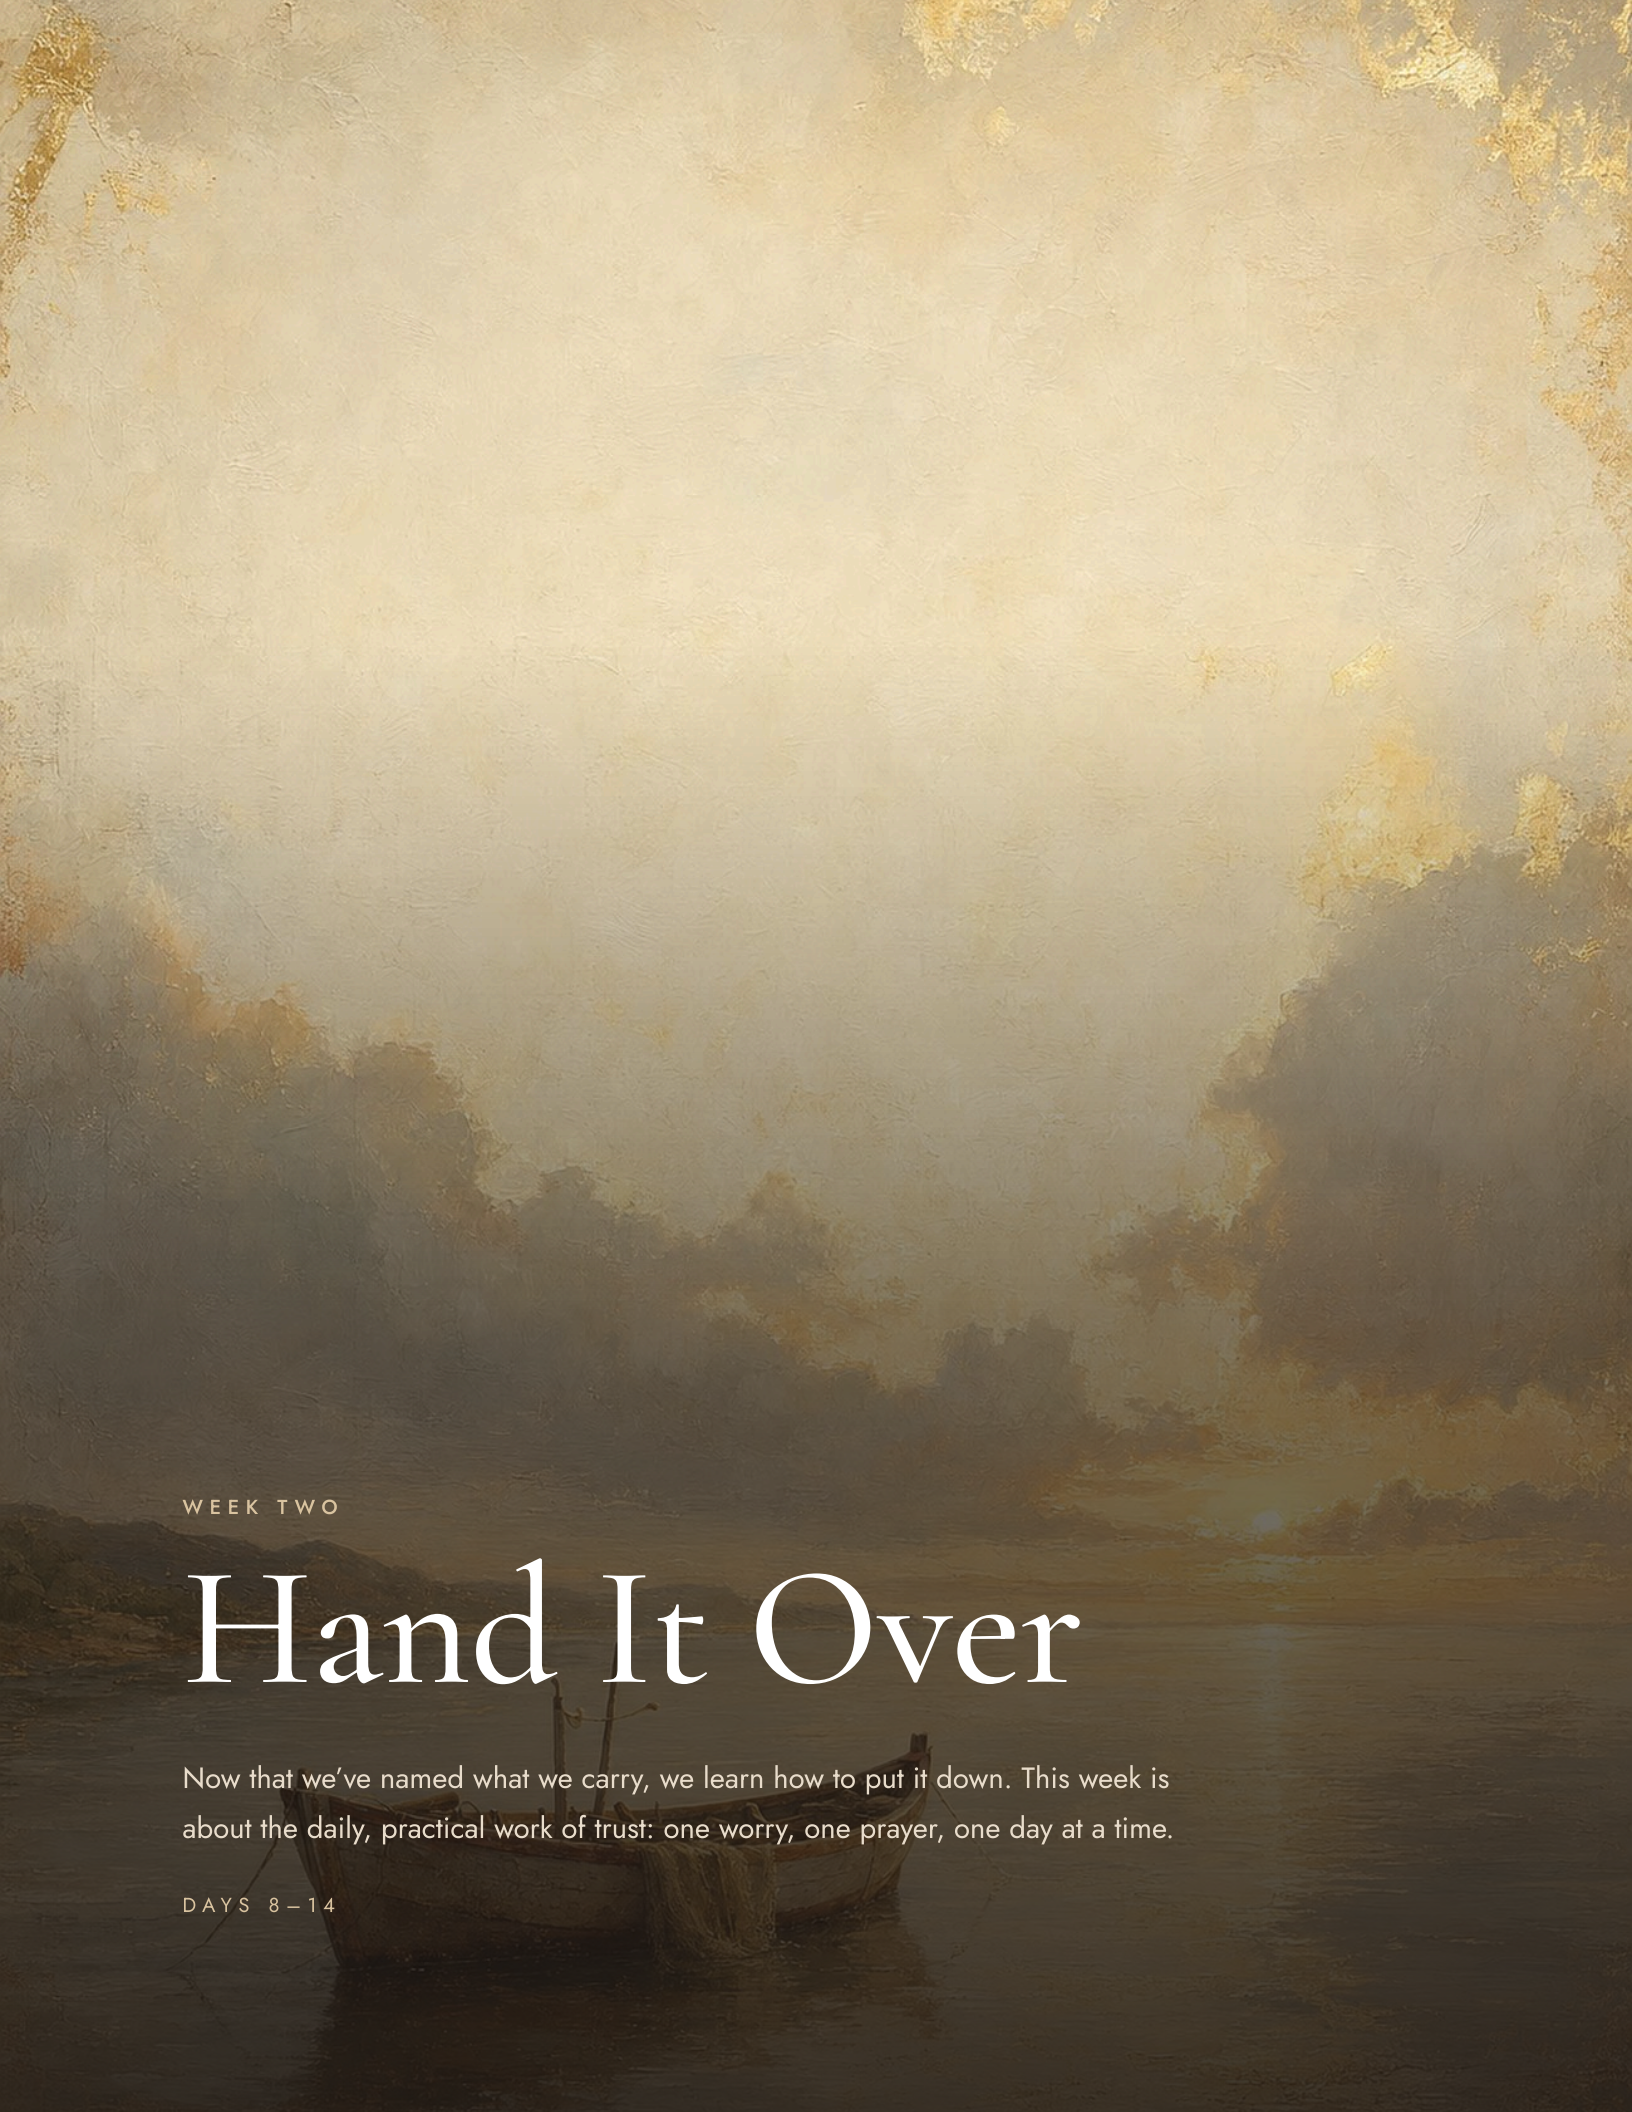

THE TRUTH I NEEDED MOST THIS WEEK

WHERE I SAW GOD AT WORK

YOU DON'T HAVE TO DO THIS ALONE

Join our free community walking through Anchored together. Share what God is doing, post a prayer request, and pray for one another. Scan the code, or on your phone tap here to join.

Coming up in Week Two: Hand It Over

WEEK TWO

Hand It Over

Now that we've named what we carry, we learn how to put it down. This week is about the daily, practical work of trust: one worry, one prayer, one day at a time.

DAYS 8–14

WEEK TWO

Day 08 / 21

Prayer With Thanksgiving

Welcome to Week Two. Last week you named what you carry. This week, you'll learn how to put it down — starting with a verse written from a prison cell.

> Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.
>
> PHILIPPIANS 4:6–7 · KJV

Paul wrote these words while chained, uncertain whether he would live or die. "Be careful for nothing" — be anxious about nothing — is not advice from someone with an easy life. It's a pathway he walked himself.

Look closely and you'll see four steps. Prayer: turn toward God. Supplication: ask for specific things. Thanksgiving: remember what He has already done. Requests made known: hand them over and leave them with Him.

And here is the promise: "the peace of God… shall keep your hearts and minds." The word "keep" is a military word — it means to guard, like soldiers standing watch around a city. Peace is not just a feeling God gives you. It's a guard He posts around your heart and mind.

Notice that the promise isn't that every request will be granted the way you want. The promise is peace — a peace that "passeth all understanding," which means it often makes no sense given your circumstances. That's how you'll know it came from Him.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 8

I can bring every worry to God with thanksgiving, and His peace will stand guard over my heart.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Use the four steps today on paper: 1) Turn to God. 2) Ask specifically. 3) Thank Him for three things. 4) Write "I leave this with You."

PRAY

Father, I bring You every anxious thing — specifically and honestly. Thank You for all You've already done. I leave these requests with You. Now post Your peace as a guard around my heart and mind. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

Prayer · Supplication · Thanksgiving · Requests made known — walk through each step below.

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow's verse is only eleven words long, but it contains a word that means to throw something with intent. We'll practice actually letting go.

WEEK TWO Day 09 / 21

Cast It

Have you ever given something to God in prayer... and picked it right back up before you said amen? You're not alone.

> Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.
>
> 1 PETER 5:7 · KJV

Peter, the same man who sank in the waves, wrote these words decades later. The word for "casting" is used in only one other place in the New Testament: when the disciples threw their cloaks onto a colt for Jesus to ride into Jerusalem. It means to throw something off of yourself and onto something else.

Casting is deliberate. You don't gently set your cares near God, ready to grab them again. You throw them onto Him, the way you'd drop a heavy bag you've been carrying for miles.

And the reason you can do it is the second half of the verse: "for he careth for you." You're not throwing your cares at a distant God who will be annoyed by them. You're placing them on Someone who cares about you more than you care about yourself.

You may have to cast the same worry many times. That's okay. Every time you pick it up, you get another chance to throw it back to Him. Over time, you'll find your arms get used to being empty.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 9

I don't have to carry what God has invited me to cast on Him. He cares for me.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Write each worry on its own line below. Then cross each one out as you pray, "I cast this on You, because You care for me."

PRAY

Lord, I'm throwing these cares onto You — all of them. Not because I'm strong, but because You care for me. When I pick them back up, remind me gently to cast them again. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

My cares, cast one at a time:

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow Jesus tells us to look at something you probably saw out your window this morning — and asks a question that is meant for you personally.

WEEK TWO

Day 10 / 21

Consider the Birds

Before you read anything else today, look outside if you can. Find a bird. Watch it for a moment. Jesus once told a crowd of worried people to do exactly that.

> Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?
>
> MATTHEW 6:26 · KJV

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus speaks directly to anxiety — He returns to the word "thought" (meaning anxious worry) again and again in just ten verses. And His first piece of evidence isn't an argument. It's a bird.

Birds don't plant crops or stock pantries. They don't make spreadsheets about next winter. Yet Jesus says, "your heavenly Father feedeth them." Notice He doesn't say their Father — He says your Father. The God who feeds the sparrows is your Dad.

Then He asks the question: "Are ye not much better than they?" It isn't rhetorical. He wants you to answer it. If God faithfully cares for creatures that will never know His name, how much more will He care for you, whom He made in His image and redeemed by His Son?

Jesus adds, "Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?" Worry doesn't add anything to your life. It only subtracts the joy from today.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 10

My Father feeds the birds, and I am worth much more to Him than they are.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Every time you see a bird today, let it be a reminder: "My Father feeds them. He will take care of me."

PRAY

Heavenly Father, thank You for the birds outside my window — tiny preachers of Your faithfulness. I am Your child, and You know what I need. Help me trust You for today's provision. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

Where have I seen God provide for me before — even in small ways? List as many as I can remember.

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow For forty years, God fed an entire nation with bread that couldn't be stored overnight. Tomorrow we'll find out why — and what it means for your worries about the future.

WEEK TWO

Day 11 / 21

Bread for Today

So much anxiety lives in the future. Next month's bills. Next year's diagnosis. What your kids will face in ten years. Today, we're going to bring your mind back to today.

> Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day.
>
> EXODUS 16:4 · KJV

In the wilderness, God sent manna — bread from heaven — every morning. There was one rule: gather only what you need for today. Some people tried to save extra for tomorrow, and by morning it had bred worms and stunk.

God wasn't being stingy. He was teaching His people something they couldn't learn any other way: trust happens one day at a time. There would always be bread tomorrow, but they would only get it tomorrow.

Centuries later, Jesus taught us to pray, "Give us this day our daily bread." Not this year's. Not this decade's. And He said, "Take therefore no thought for the morrow… Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof."

God gives grace for today, not for every imagined tomorrow. When you try to carry next year's problems with today's strength, of course you're overwhelmed — you were never given grace for that yet. It will be there when you get there.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 11

God gives me grace for today. Tomorrow's grace will be there tomorrow.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

When your mind jumps to the future today, ask: "Is this today's bread?" If not, say: "Lord, I'll trust You for that when I get there."

PRAY

Lord, give me this day my daily bread. I confess I've been trying to gather grace for years I haven't lived yet. Help me live today, with today's strength, and trust You for tomorrow. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

What future worry am I trying to carry with today's strength? What is today's bread — the one thing God is asking of me today?

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow we'll read a verse written in the middle of a city's ruin. It holds a promise that resets every single morning — including the one after a hard day.

WEEK TWO Day 12 / 21

New Every Morning

Maybe yesterday was hard. Maybe you skipped a day of this journal, or snapped at someone you love, or spent the night spiraling. Good news: today is a new morning.

> It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.
>
> LAMENTATIONS 3:22–23 · KJV

The book of Lamentations was written after Jerusalem was destroyed. The writer describes it with unbearable honesty: "My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath broken my bones." There is no pretending in this book.

And then, right in the middle of the grief — near the very center of the book — comes this turn: "This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope." Hope didn't come because circumstances changed. It came because he remembered something.

What did he remember? That God's mercies — His steadfast, covenant love — never run out. "They are new every morning." Every sunrise is a fresh supply. Yesterday's failures did not use up today's mercy.

If you've fallen behind on this journal, you haven't failed. Research on habits actually shows that missing a day here and there doesn't undo the progress. Just turn the page. His mercy got here before you woke up.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 12

His mercies are new this morning. Yesterday does not get the final word.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Tonight before bed, write down one thing to leave in yesterday. Tomorrow morning, before anything else, say: "Great is Thy faithfulness."

PRAY

Lord, thank You that Your compassions never fail. I bring You yesterday — the mistakes, the worry, the things I wish I'd done differently. I receive Your new mercy this morning. Great is Your faithfulness. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

What do I need to leave in yesterday? What new mercy do I see this morning?

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow, we tackle the thoughts themselves — the ones that loop at 2 a.m. Scripture gives us a filter with eight questions to run them through.

WEEK TWO

Day 13 / 21

Think on These Things

An anxious mind is like a browser with forty tabs open — and most of them are worst-case scenarios. Today we learn to close some tabs.

> Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.
>
> PHILIPPIANS 4:8 · KJV

Right after Paul tells us to bring everything to God in prayer (Day 8), he tells us what to do with our minds next. He gives us a filter: true, honest, just, pure, lovely, of good report, virtuous, praiseworthy.

Run your anxious thoughts through just the first word: true. Most worries fail right there. "Everyone is disappointed in me." Is that true? "This will definitely go wrong." Is that true — or is it a possibility your fear has dressed up as a fact?

Paul says elsewhere that we are "bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ" (2 Corinthians 10:5). Thoughts can be taken captive. You don't have to follow every thought down the hallway it wants to take you.

This isn't positive thinking or pretending problems away. It's choosing to dwell on what is real and good — and the realest, best thing is God Himself, who is true, just, pure and lovely in every way.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 13

I don't have to believe every thought I think. I can take my thoughts captive to Christ.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Pick your top anxious thought. Ask: Is it true? Is it lovely? Is it of good report? Then write a replacement thought that passes the filter.

PRAY

Lord Jesus, my mind has been running in circles. I bring every thought captive to You. Fill my mind with what is true and lovely — and most of all, with You. In Your name, amen.

JOURNAL

The anxious thought: / Is it true? / The true thought I'll think instead:

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow, the disciples ask Jesus a question many of us have whispered in the dark: "Don't You care?" His answer comes in three words that silenced a storm.

WEEK TWO Day 14 / 21

Peace, Be Still

This is the last day of Week Two. If you're still here, take a moment to be proud of that. Now, picture a small boat, a huge storm, and Jesus — asleep.

> And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish? And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.
>
> MARK 4:38–39 · KJV

Several of the disciples were professional fishermen. They knew these waters. So when they panicked, it was a real storm. Waves were filling the boat. And Jesus was asleep on a cushion in the back.

Their question is so honest: "Master, carest thou not that we perish?" Haven't we all prayed that? Don't You see what's happening? Don't You care?

Jesus doesn't answer with words first. He answers with action. He stands up and speaks to the storm: "Peace, be still." And Mark says there was "a great calm." A great storm met a greater calm.

Here's the part we often miss: Jesus was in the boat the whole time. The storm never meant He was absent. His sleep wasn't neglect — it was perfect rest in His Father. And the same Jesus who calmed that sea is in your boat today.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 14

Jesus is in my boat. The storm does not mean He has left me.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

When anxiety rises today, put your hand on your heart and say, "Peace, be still." Picture Jesus speaking those words over your storm.

PRAY

Jesus, I've asked if You care. I know You do — You're in this boat with me. Speak to my storm today: Peace, be still. And teach me to rest in You the way You rested in Your Father. In Your name, amen.

JOURNAL

Week Two reflection: Which worry have I most been able to hand over? Which one do I still need to keep casting?

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Week Three begins tomorrow. It opens with a promise God spoke over people walking through fire and water — and it starts with your name.

WELL DONE

You finished Week Two.

Seven days of showing up. That matters more than you know. Before you move on, take a moment to look back.

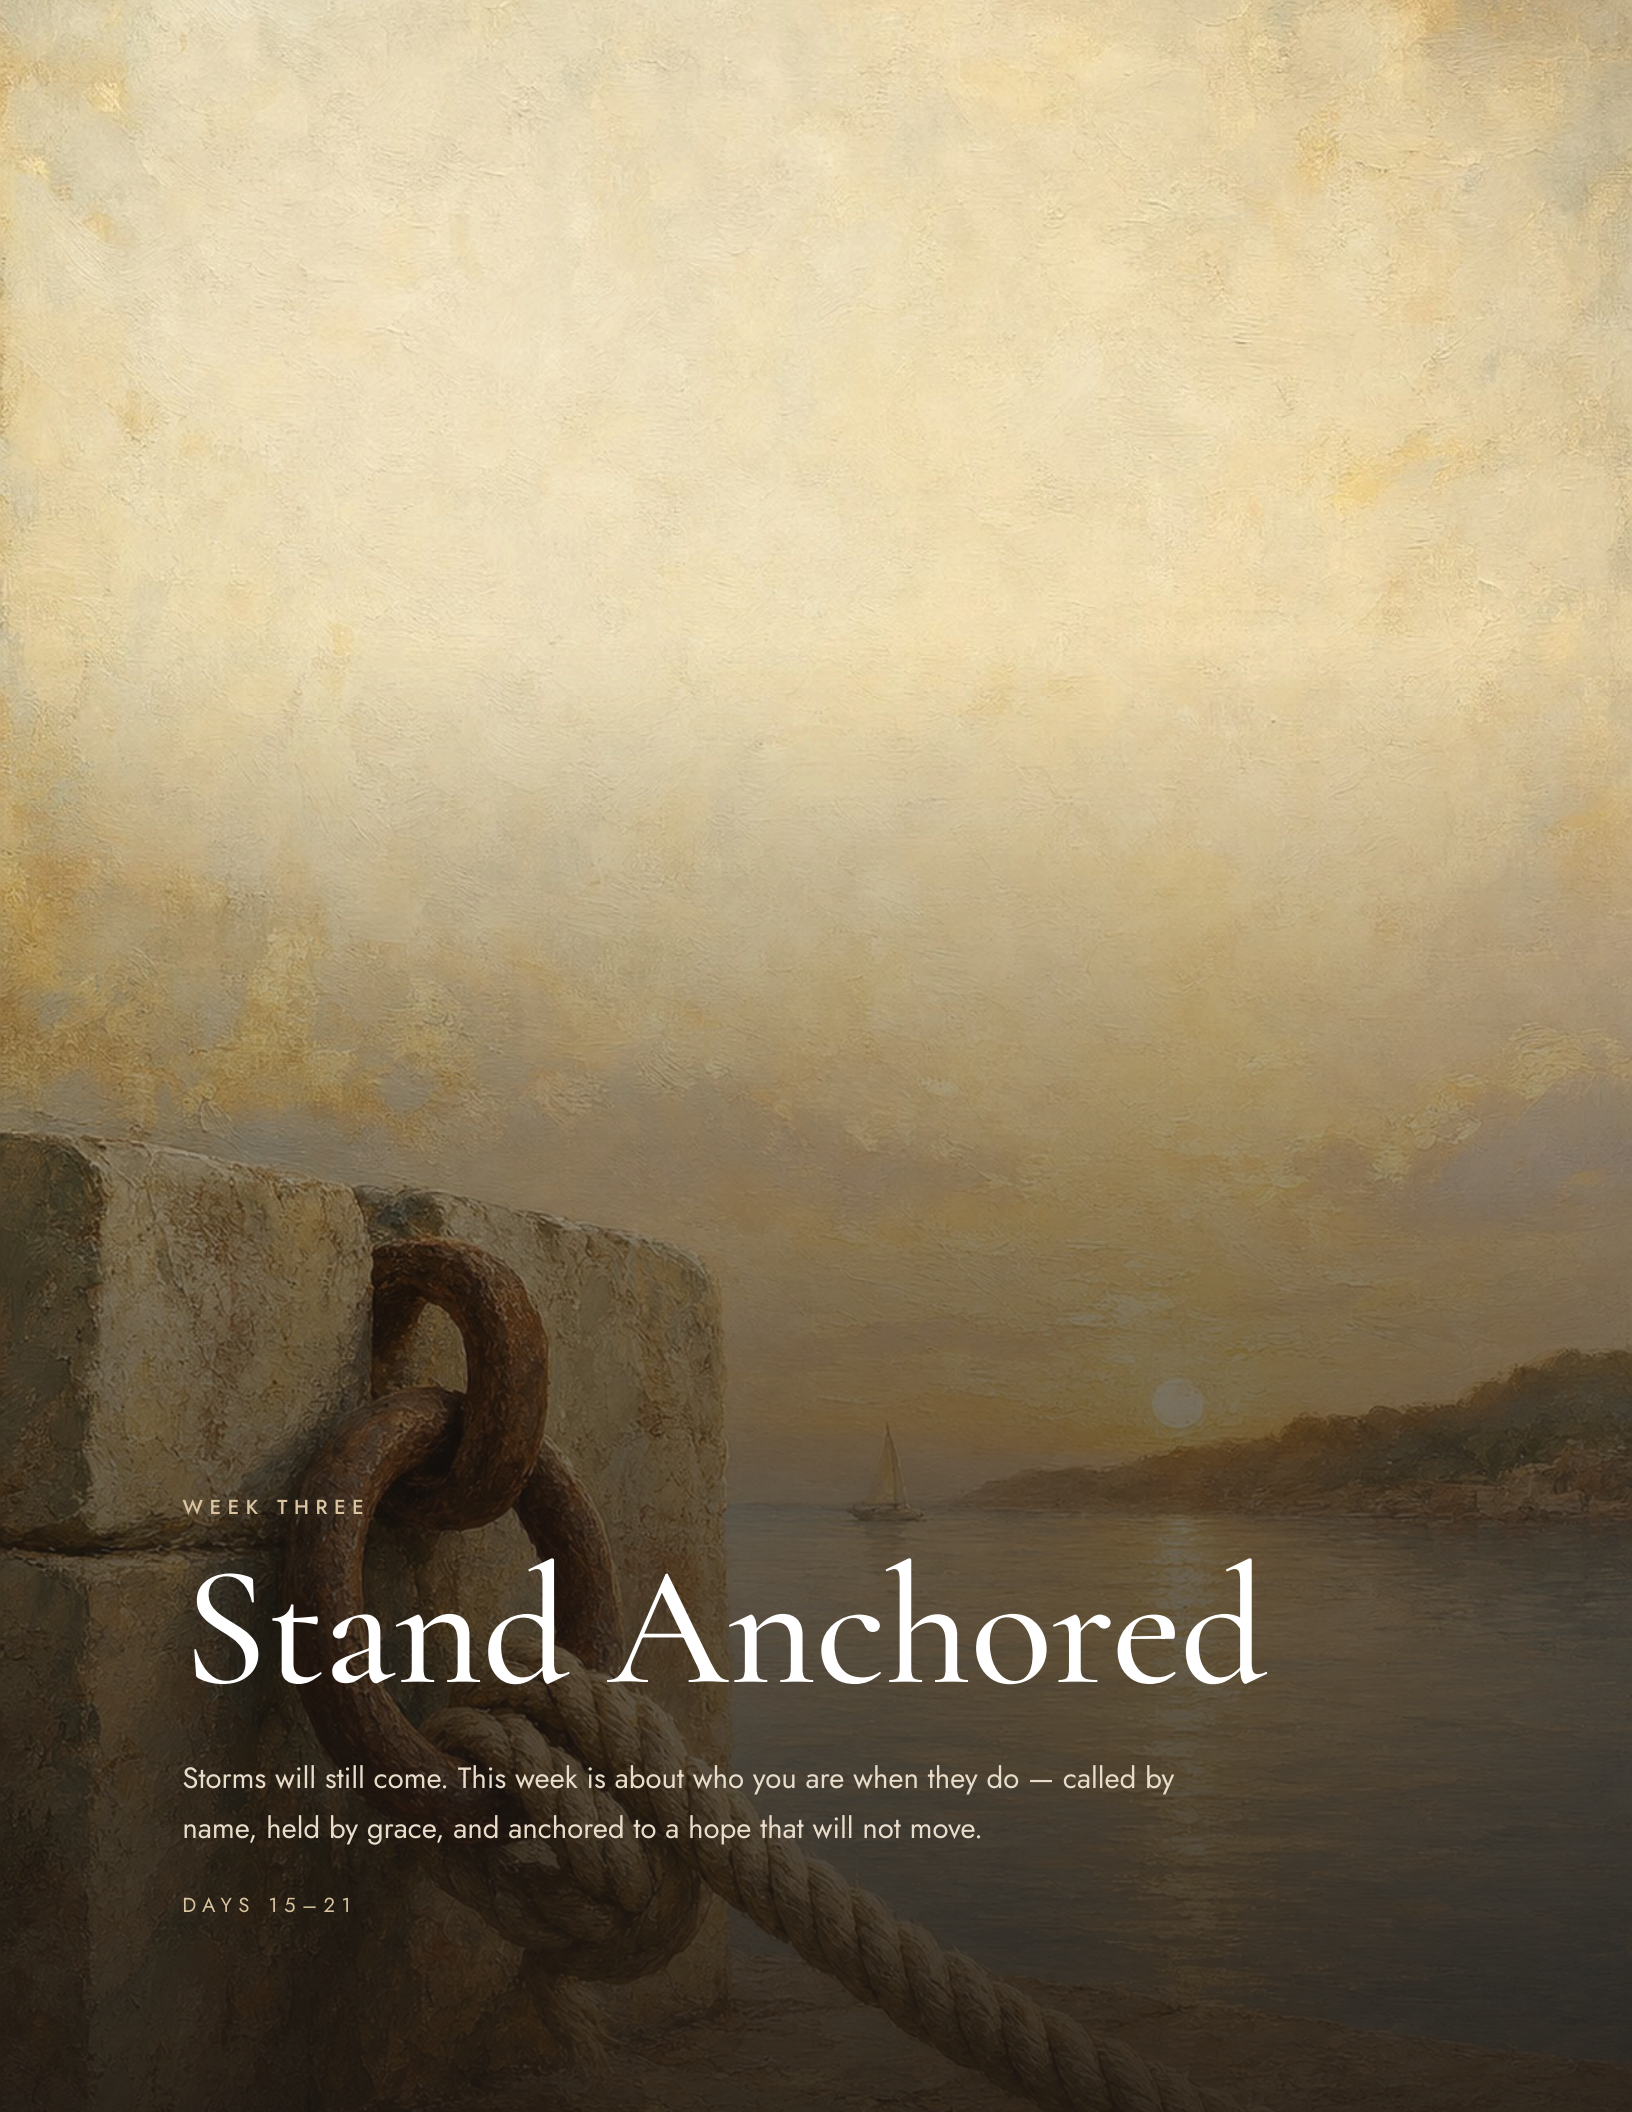

THE TRUTH I NEEDED MOST THIS WEEK

WHERE I SAW GOD AT WORK

YOU DON'T HAVE TO DO THIS ALONE

Join our free community walking through Anchored together. Share what God is doing, post a prayer request, and pray for one another. Scan the code, or on your phone tap here to join.

Coming up in Week Three: Stand Anchored

WEEK THREE

Stand Anchored

Storms will still come. This week is about who you are when they do — called by name, held by grace, and anchored to a hope that will not move.

DAYS 15–21

WEEK THREE Day 15 / 21

Called by Name

Welcome to the final week. These last seven days are about who you are — because anxiety is often an identity problem before it's a circumstance problem.

> But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.
>
> ISAIAH 43:1–2 · KJV

God spoke these words to a nation that had failed Him again and again. And He didn't begin with correction. He began with identity: "I created thee… I formed thee… I have redeemed thee… I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine."

Only after that does He say "Fear not." The command not to fear rests on who you belong to. You don't stop being afraid by trying harder; you stop being afraid by remembering whose you are.

Notice what God does not promise: He doesn't say you'll never pass through water or fire. He says "when thou passest through." The promise isn't exemption. It's presence: "I will be with thee."

Try reading the verse aloud with your own name in place of "Jacob" and "Israel." This is how God speaks over you. Not "the anxious one." Not "the one who can't get it together." Mine.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 15

God has called me by name. I am His, and He is with me in the water and the fire.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Write Isaiah 43:1 on a sticky note with your own name in it. Put it where you'll see it every morning this week.

PRAY

Lord, You created me, formed me, redeemed me, and called me by name. I am Yours. When I pass through the waters, be with me. When I walk through the fire, hold me. I will not fear, because I belong to You. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

Rewrite Isaiah 43:1–2 with my own name. How does it feel to read it that way?

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow, we face the voice that tells you you've messed up too much for God's peace. Romans 8 has a word for that voice — and it begins with "no."

WEEK THREE Day 16 / 21

No Condemnation

Some anxiety isn't about what might happen. It's about what already did — the guilt you keep replaying, the sense that you're always one mistake away from losing God's love.

> There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
>
> ROMANS 8:1 · KJV

Romans 8 is often called the greatest chapter in the Bible, and it opens with one of the greatest sentences: "There is therefore now no condemnation." Not less condemnation. Not condemnation on probation. None.

That word "now" matters. You don't have to wait until you're better, more spiritual, or less anxious. In Christ Jesus, the verdict over your life has already been read — and it is "not guilty," because He took the penalty in your place.

The chapter ends just as strongly: "neither death, nor life… nor things present, nor things to come… shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Paul tried to list everything that could possibly come between you and God, and then crossed every one of them out.

If you're not sure you're "in Christ Jesus," turn to the page near the front of this book called "Before You Begin." This promise is meant for you, and you can receive it today.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 16

In Christ, there is no condemnation for me. Nothing can separate me from His love.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

When an old guilt resurfaces today, say: "There is now no condemnation. That's been paid for." Then let it go.

PRAY

Jesus, thank You for taking my condemnation on the cross. I've been replaying things You've already forgiven. Today I receive Your verdict over my life: no condemnation. Nothing can separate me from Your love. In Your name, amen.

JOURNAL

What guilt have I been carrying that Jesus has already paid for? Write it — then write "PAID" over it.

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow we'll hear about a thorn Paul begged God three times to remove. God's answer was "no" — and it turned into one of the most freeing promises in the Bible.

WEEK THREE Day 17 / 21

Grace for the Weak Places

What if your anxiety doesn't completely go away after 21 days? Would that mean this didn't work — or that you didn't have enough faith?

> And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.
>
> 2 CORINTHIANS 12:9 · KJV

Paul had what he called a "thorn in the flesh." We don't know exactly what it was. We do know he pleaded with God three times to take it away. And God said no.

But God didn't just say no. He said, "My grace is sufficient for thee." Sufficient means enough. Not abundant leftovers — enough, for exactly what you're facing.

Then God tells Paul something upside-down: "my strength is made perfect in weakness." The weak places in your life aren't obstacles to God's power. They're where it shows up most clearly.

God can and does heal, and it is right to ask. Sometimes healing also comes through wise counsel, medical care, or time. And whether the thorn stays or goes, His grace is enough for today. You don't need to be strong. You need to be His.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 17

God's grace is enough for me today, and His strength shows up in my weakness.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Name one weakness you've been ashamed of. Pray: "Lord, let Your power rest here." If you've been putting off getting help — a counselor, a doctor, a pastor — make that call this week.

PRAY

Lord, You know the thorn I've asked You to remove. I still ask. But today I also receive Your answer: Your grace is sufficient for me. Let Your strength be made perfect in my weakness. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

Where do I feel weakest right now? What would it look like for Christ's power to rest there?

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow, God speaks to a new leader standing at the edge of a frightening future. He gives the same command three times — and the reason behind it is for you, too.

WEEK THREE Day 18 / 21

Be Strong and Courageous

Is there something you've been avoiding because you're afraid? A conversation, a decision, a doctor's appointment, a step of faith?

> Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.
>
> JOSHUA 1:9 · KJV

Moses was dead. Joshua had just inherited the job of leading an entire nation into a land full of fortified cities and giants. If anyone had a reason to be anxious, it was Joshua.

In the first chapter of his book, God tells him "be strong and of a good courage" three times. God repeats Himself because He knows how fear works. We need to hear it again, and again.

But courage in the Bible is never based on how strong you feel. It's always based on who is with you: "for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest." Wherever. The hospital. The courtroom. The hard conversation. The empty house.

Courage isn't the absence of fear. It's taking the next step while fear is still talking, because God is walking beside you.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 18

I can take the next brave step, because the Lord my God is with me wherever I go.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Identify one small brave step you've been avoiding. Write it down, and finish this sentence: "When ____ happens, I will ____." Then do it.

PRAY

Lord, You've told me three times to be strong and courageous — thank You for repeating Yourself. I'm afraid, but I'm taking this step anyway, because You are with me wherever I go. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

What brave step is God asking me to take? When and where will I take it?

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow we read a psalm that imagines the worst — mountains falling into the sea — and still says, "we will not fear." It ends with two words you've already met.

WEEK THREE Day 19 / 21

A Very Present Help

What's your worst-case scenario? Most anxious people have one ready. Psalm 46 goes there on purpose — and then shows us where to stand.

> God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea. … Be still, and know that I am God.
>
> PSALM 46:1–2, 10 · KJV

The psalmist imagines the most terrifying thing his world could picture: the earth giving way, mountains collapsing into the sea, waters roaring. It's the ancient version of every worst-case scenario.

And his response? "Therefore will not we fear." Not because the disaster won't happen, but because "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble." A refuge is a place you run into. "Very present" means close, near, easily found.

Then, at the end, God Himself speaks: "Be still, and know that I am God." In Hebrew, "be still" carries the sense of "let go" or "stop striving." Release your grip. Stop fighting. Know who's in charge.

You met "be still" on Day 14, when Jesus spoke it to a storm. Here God speaks it to you. The same voice that calms seas calms souls.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 19

God is my refuge, very present in my trouble. I can let go and know that He is God.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Sit quietly for three minutes with your palms open on your lap — a posture of letting go. Repeat slowly: "Be still, and know that I am God."

PRAY

God, You are my refuge and my strength. Even if the mountains fall, I will not fear, because You are very present. I let go. I stop striving. I know that You are God. In Jesus' name, amen.

JOURNAL

If my worst-case scenario happened, how would God still be my refuge? What would He still be?

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow On the night before He died, Jesus left His friends an inheritance. It wasn't money or land. Tomorrow, you'll find out what it was — and that it's yours.

WEEK THREE Day 20 / 21

My Peace I Give

We've spent nineteen days learning to trust. Today we receive a gift. You don't earn it, achieve it, or perform for it. You just open your hands.

> Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
>
> JOHN 14:27 · KJV

In John 14, Jesus is at the table with His disciples on His final night. He knows they're about to be shaken to the core. So He leaves them something, like a will: "Peace I leave with you."

Then He makes it personal: "my peace I give unto you." Not peace in general. His own peace — the peace that let Him sleep in the storm and walk to the cross with steady steps.

"Not as the world giveth." The world gives peace when circumstances line up — when the bank account is full and the test results are clear. Jesus gives peace that doesn't depend on circumstances at all, because it depends on Him.

"Let not your heart be troubled." That's an invitation and a choice. He has already given the peace. Today, choose to receive it.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 20

Jesus has given me His own peace. I choose to receive it today.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Hold your hands open and pray: "Jesus, I receive Your peace." Then write down one place in your life you'll invite His peace into today.

PRAY

Jesus, thank You for leaving me Your peace — not the world's fragile kind, but Yours. I open my hands and receive it now. I will not let my heart be troubled, because You are with me. In Your name, amen.

JOURNAL

How is the peace of Jesus different from the peace I've been chasing?

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

Tomorrow Tomorrow is Day 21. On the very first page you saw a verse about an anchor. Tomorrow you'll learn why that image was chosen — and what it means for every storm still ahead.

WEEK THREE Day 21 / 21

Anchored

You did it. Twenty-one days. Before you read anything else, take a moment and thank God for carrying you this far.

> Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil. … In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.
>
> HEBREWS 6:19 · JOHN 16:33 · KJV

An anchor doesn't stop the storm. It doesn't calm the waves or quiet the wind. What it does is hold the ship in place while the storm passes. A ship without an anchor gets pushed wherever the wind wants. A ship with one stays steady.

Hebrews says our hope in Christ is "an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast." Then it says something stunning: this anchor "entereth into that within the veil." In the temple, the veil separated people from the presence of God. Our anchor isn't buried in the sand of our circumstances. It is fixed in heaven itself, in God's presence, where Jesus has gone ahead of us.

Jesus never promised a life without storms. He said, "In the world ye shall have tribulation." But He didn't stop there: "be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." The storm is real. The Anchor is stronger.

These 21 days were never about getting rid of every anxious feeling. They were about learning where to tie your soul. When the next storm comes — and it will — you'll know what to do. Name it. Hand it over. Stand anchored.

TRUTH TO HOLD · DAY 21

My hope is an anchor fixed in heaven. Jesus has overcome the world, and He is holding me.

PRACTICE FOR TODAY

Go back to Day 1 and read what you wrote. Then write a letter to the woman you were 21 days ago, telling her what you've learned.

PRAY

Jesus, You are my anchor — sure and steadfast. Thank You for every one of these 21 days. Storms will come, but You have overcome the world, and You are holding me. Keep my soul anchored in You for the rest of my life. In Your name, amen.

JOURNAL

A letter to the woman I was on Day 1:

☐ Read today's reading ☐ Prayed ☐ Did the practice ☐ Date: _____

You made it Turn the page — there's one more thing waiting for you.

TWENTY-ONE DAYS

You are anchored.

You didn't just finish a book. You built a rhythm of bringing your heart to God, day after day. Storms will still come — but now you know where to tie your soul.

✦

Where do I go from here?

Keep the rhythm. Keep your same time and place. Read one chapter of the Gospel of John each day — 21 chapters, 21 days.

Find your people. If you don't have a church family, ask God to lead you to a Bible-teaching local church this month.

Begin again anytime. Print a fresh copy of this book whenever a new storm comes.

Pass it on. Think of one woman who is carrying a heavy load — and send her this book.

KEEP GOING

More free devotionals in the Elonai collection are waiting for you at blog-elonai.vercel.app

A GIFT THAT KEEPS GOING

Help the next person find Him.

This book was given to you freely, because no one should have to pay to hear that God is near. It will always stay free.

If these 21 days have blessed you, would you consider a small gift? Your support helps us keep creating free devotionals and put Anchored into the hands of more women who are lying awake tonight, wondering if anyone sees them.

GIVE WITH KO-FI

On your phone? Tap the button. Printed copy? Scan the code or type the address. Card, Apple Pay, Google Pay or PayPal.

TAP HERE TO GIVE

ko-fi.com/elonaistore

$5 $10 $25 Any amount

Give safely: only use the giving links printed here or listed at blog-elonai.vercel.app/give. We will never message you asking for money or send a different payment link.

"Freely ye have received, freely give."

MATTHEW 10:8

Not able to give right now? Please don't feel any pressure. You can help just as much by sharing this book with a friend, or by leaving a note in our community about what God did in these 21 days. We read every one.

Gifts go to Elonai Store, an independent creator, to fund free faith resources. Elonai Store is not a registered charity, so gifts are not tax-deductible.

PASS IT ON

Who came to mind?

As you read these pages, someone probably came to mind — a sister, a friend, a coworker, a mom at school. Anxiety tells people they're alone. You can be the one who reminds her she isn't.

GET A FREE COPY

blog-elonai.vercel.app

JOIN THE COMMUNITY

Tap to join · free · praying together

Text it, email it, share it in your small group or Bible study.
Every copy is free — always.

I'M SENDING THIS TO:

PRAYER LIST

Lifting them up

People and needs I'm praying for.

DATE	NAME / NEED	SCRIPTURE I'M PRAYING	✓

ANSWERED PRAYERS

He was faithful

Write it down so you never forget how He answered.

DATE ASKED	REQUEST	HOW GOD ANSWERED	DATE

CUT-OUT SCRIPTURE CARDS

Keep His Word close

Thou God seest me.

GENESIS 16:13 · KJV

Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

1 PETER 5:7 · KJV

Peace, be still.

MARK 4:39 · KJV

Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

ISAIAH 43:1 · KJV

My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness.

2 CORINTHIANS 12:9 · KJV

Be still, and know that I am God.

PSALM 46:10 · KJV

They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

LAMENTATIONS 3:23 · KJV

Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast.

HEBREWS 6:19 · KJV

ELONAI

STORE

"These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

JOHN 16:33

Free devotionals: blog-elonai.vercel.app